The third meeting of the Accomac Baptist ministers was held at Onancock Tuesday. Rev. J. M. Dunaway was elected president and Rev. J. L. King secretary. The next meeting will be held October 1st, at Parkley.

The "special cut prices" advertised by I. H. Merrill, Pocomoque City, in this issue, merit the attention of our readers. He wants to reduce his large stock and is willing to make sacrifices in order to accomplish that object.

A drama, entitled "Uncle Tom's Cabin," will be rendered at Marionville hall, Northampton county, on Wednesday, July 20th, for the benefit of Red Bank Baptist Church. Doors open at 8 p. m. Refreshments will be served.

Aeome Female Tent of I. O. O. of Rechabites of Sykes, will hold a fair and festival on Tuesday, July 16th, for the benefit of said Tent and the advancement of Temperance work, commencing at 2 p. m. Supper and refreshments will be served.

The real estate of which Arden Daisey, of Chincoteague, died seized and possessed, adjoining the lands of Jno. W. Bunting and others, will be sold at public auction by F. Floyd Neek, special commissioner, on Friday, July 26th inst., 4 p. m.

Mr. John R. Rew, the winner of the debater's medal at the University of Virginia this year, fully sustained his reputation as a graceful and forcible speaker at Parkley, on the 4th. There was but one opinion of its merit by all who heard it—that it was a fine address, well and gracefully delivered.

Messrs. W. M. Needles and L. F. J. Wilson, enterprising and intelligent business men of Franklin city, this county, have formed a copartnership for conducting the real estate business and solicit the patronage of the people of the Eastern Shores of Virginia and Maryland. Read their announcement in this issue.

The Board of Supervisors, at its meeting on Wednesday, reorganized by electing Spencer F. Rogers, Chairman, and received and examined the annual reports of road surveyors for year ending June 30th 1895. The Board will meet again on Monday, July 23d, the annual meeting day prescribed by statute.

The round potato crop of the farmers generally in Northampton is short one half for various reasons, it is stated, this year. The shortage by many is attributed to the dry weather later in the season, but the fields of many were so badly deluged by the fall of water in the beginning as to cause them irreparable loss. The early rains cut short the crop of Mr. Jos. B. Ames, formerly of this county, it is said, at least 500 barrels.

Elmer T. Bonnewell and Wesley Spence, arrested by Capt. John R. Thomas, on the charge "of having on the 3d day of July, 1895, in the waters of Pocomoque Sound in said county, taken or caught oysters from the natural oyster rocks, bed or shoals," were with the approval and consent of the county Judge discharged last Wednesday, by the payment of ten dollars, each, and costs, to John E. Anderton, inspector of 5th district.

NEIGHBORHOOD NOTES.

Sanford.

Mrs. Alfred Taylor is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Hill, in Baltimore.

The Rechabite hall at this place is much improved by a new coat of paint.

Mrs. Frank Young, of Guilford, is the guest of her brother, Mr. John E. Middleton.

Miss Neva Marshall, of West Point, Va., is visiting relatives and friends at this place.

The fairs held at this place and Flag Pond on the 4th, were well attended and highly enjoyed.

Miss Cerinda Evans, of Oak Hall, teacher at this place last session, spent a few days in our midst last week.

A gentleman here, whom everybody thought to be a confirmed bachelor, is about to enliven his lonely dwelling by a bright young presence.

Miss Anna Westmoreland, governess in the family of Mr. C. W. Peddemann, has returned to her home at Petersburg, to the regret of her many friends here.

K. S. Robins and Horace M. Bunkie have improved their dwellings by new coats of paint. The latter has also raised his back building, added fancy front gables and handsome porches.

Mr. John L. Anderton, keeper of the Assateague light-house, was a welcome visitor in our town last week. We are always glad to see friend Anderton, he takes sunshine wherever he goes.

It is to be hoped, that the enlargement of schoolhouse at this place will be effected before the coming session and that we will have the three teachers so badly needed. The advancement of the children cannot be expected when the rooms are so crowded as they were last session and the school is rapidly increasing in numbers.

Mr. Henry Hall and Miss Almira McCready were married at the Virginia-Maryland line, by Rev. J. Carson Watson, Wednesday, 3d inst. They were attended by the following couples: Frank Green and Miss Mollie McCready, sister of the bride; Wm. McCready and Miss Mary Dickerson; George Anderton and Miss Lelia Dickerson.

Onancock.

Col. B. T. Parker is on the sick list this week.

The price of truck barrels at this place has been reduced to 18 cents.

Miss Franklin, of Lynchburg, is visiting the family of Mr. U. B. Quinby.

Misses Lizzie Booker and Alma Elam, of Suffolk, Va., are visiting Miss Maudie Mills.

Mr. S. W. Matthews, candidate for the Legislature, was among the visitors to the town this week.

Mrs. Sabra Joyner, Mrs. Tibbie Hance and Mrs. Virginia Joyner, of Baltimore, are guests of Mrs. Wm. B. Pitts.

Rev. A. J. Reamy, assisted by Rev. F. M. Sandford, is holding revival services at Broadway Baptist Church, and good results are expected.

The boarding department of the Margaret Academy, next session, will be under the management of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Parker, and there is only one sentiment regarding same—that it will be first-class in all respects.

In a match game of baseball, at Onancock, on last Monday, between Onancock and Pungoteague nines, the score was 22 to 13 in favor of the former, despite the fact that Pungoteague team had a pitcher and catcher from Baltimore.

Schooner Mary Emmor, left her wharf at Onancock, on Tuesday, for Baltimore, and will sail from that port on Thursday, with the Accomac Yacht Club, composed of Captains Ben and George Crockett of this county, Will and Paul Pitts and several other young men of Baltimore, for Atlantic City and other points. Their outing will extend over a period of two weeks or more.

In the contest between Onancock and Cape Charles base ball teams at Cape Charles on the Fourth, Onancock won by the score of 27 to 17 and brought back with them as a trophy of their victory the silver cup offered to the winners, but say that the Cape Charles team captured their hearts by the gracious and hospitable manner in which they received and entertained them. The mayor of the town, Capt. Geo. G. Savage, delivered the cup in a very neat and acceptable address.

Atlantic.

Mr. George H. J. Edmonston, son of the Rev. Geo. P. Edmonston of this place, left on Tuesday for West Virginia, to engage in railroad construction.

The celebration at Wishart's Point, July 4th, was a success. Everything passed off pleasantly though we had a light rain late in the afternoon. In the boat race the bateau "Baby Ruth," (named after President Cleveland's daughter), won the flag. She is a fine sailer and we doubt not will bravely defend the flag she has won.

Our farmers are rushing their Irish potatoes to market. The yield is better than was anticipated, being about three fourths of a crop. Much of the crop is being shipped on the sea-side. A schooner is now loading at Wishart's Point for 20 cents per barrel freight to Philadelphia. The charge to New York is 25 cents. The hay crop is good. Corn and oats are looking well.

Parkley.

Mr. Harry Tull and James Daugherty, of Fairmont, Somerset Co., Md., have been visiting friends in Parkley.

Rev. R. B. Sanford was severely pounded last Tuesday night, but at last accounts was not disposed to prosecute his assailants.

Miss May Johnson returned home last Wednesday, and reports a very pleasant visit to West Virginia, Washington and Baltimore.

The M. E. Sunday school held its annual Sunday school picnic on the 4th of July, on Half Moon Island. Quite a number took advantage of this trip.

Miss Ethel Lewis is visiting her friend, Miss Manie Crouse, of St. Michaels, Md. She also expects to visit friends in Centerville, Md., before returning home.

On Monday evening a birthday party was given at the parsonage by Rev. Mr. Givan, pastor of the M. E. Church. The occasion was a pleasant one to all present.

The Baptists of Parkley and vicinity, propose to hold a concert at Johnson's hall the last of July, the proceeds to be applied to building a Baptist Church at this place.

A few of our Parkley boys played with the Cape Charles base ball team on the 4th, against the Onancock boys, and although defeated, they don't propose to allow the victors to crow very loud.

Arrivals at Lewis Hotel, this week: Wm. E. Doughty, Wm. F. Knox, F. B. Lewis, J. C. Wentz, John Harman, Baltimore, Md.; Wm. Brandies, C. G. Willis, Philadelphia; J. L. Crowther, Chicago; J. Nelson Smith, Cumberland, Va.; M. E. Selby, Wilmington; W. W. Dawson, Dover, Del.; S. W. Matthews, Temperanceville.

Parkley's 4th of July demonstration was a grand success. The crowd was the largest ever seen here before on such an occasion. Everybody seemed to enjoy themselves. Patriotic speeches were made by Senator LeCato, Mr. John R. Rew and others. The speaking was interspersed with national airs, vocal and instrumental, which added much to the occasion. A novel feature of the occasion was a vote on the Woman's Suffrage question, but indulged in for the most part only by old widowers and lonely bachelors. The majority in favor of suffrage was 21. A fine supper was served by the ladies, and the day was closed by a grand display of fireworks under the management of Mr. Frank White, of Parkley, and Mr. Willis, of Philadelphia.

Chincoteague.

Capt. J. B. Hudson, Sr., died on the 8th inst., aged 63 years.

Protracted meeting commenced at our M. E. Church, last Sunday.

W. J. Matthews has just returned from a visit to the Northern cities.

Capt. N. B. Rich and family moved here from Wachapreague this week.

Schooner Elnora arrived here this week from New York with a load of ice for the Atlantic Hotel.

The Revenue Cutter was here this week with Lieut. F. J. Wild and two sons on board. They left here for Ocean City.

Asher L. Matthews and B. F. Collins have bought the land known as the Mrs. W. D. Burch tract, and each propose to improve same by new dwellings at an early day.

H. K. Smith son of Dr. N. S. Smith, won the first prize in the bicycle race at Pocomoque City on the Fourth of July. He beat their brag man, Mr. Scott, who for years has won prizes over all competitors. He made the half mile in 1.12. Nick Smith, his brother, won the prize in another half mile race in 1.17. Hurrah for Chincoteague!

Arrivals at Atlantic hotel this week: R. Trimble, J. S. Brode, J. K. Crowther, C. G. Prettyman, Philadelphia; A. W. Byrd, J. H. Feddemann, E. F. Gillette, Baltimore; M. H. Pope, Salisbury; M. E. Selby, H. P. Myers and wife, Wilmington; E. W. Polk and wife, Pocomoque; E. B. Davidson, Milford; A. F. Byrd, L. F. J. Wilson, Polk Lang, R. L. Fletcher, I. B. Clarke, Thos. Savage, Accomac; Capt. H. C. Crumb, Northampton.

New Church.

Mr. David J. Taylor died on July 2d, at his late home near this place.

Messrs. Lloyd Brittingham and Jos. T. Ruark left for Philadelphia and other points last week.

Infant child of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Shockley died on the 4th inst., and was taken to their late home at Powellsville, Md., for burial.

We are glad to report the fair and festival held by our Baptist friends on Wednesday, 10th inst., a success both socially and financially.

Our farmers are busily engaged shipping their potatoes at this writing. Owing to the extreme dry weather of some weeks past the crop is quite short.

The members of the M. P. Church, at this place, will have an all day fair on Wednesday, July 24th, at their church. Dinner, supper, ice cream, &c., will be served on the occasion.

Children's Day will be observed at our Baptist Church on Sunday, 13th inst. The program and previous efforts furnish sufficient guarantee, that the exercises will be first-class.

During the storm of June 30th, lightning struck a stable belonging to Mr. Ezra Taylor, at his home near Atlantic, which contained two horses. One was killed instantly while at the box eating hay, the other was left uninjured.

Marsh Market.

The bud worm is doing some damage to corn in this section.

Some of our oystermen are engaged in crabbing and are doing well.

Children's day exercises will come off at Hall's Chapel next Sunday night.

The fairs at Sanford, Shiloh and Flag Pond were well attended on the 4th of July. The gross sales at Shiloh were $150.50. The other two did well.

The road machine under the efficient management of Mr. Asa Taylor and his excellent hands worked on our road last week and put it in good condition.

On July 3d the wife of Capt. Alsavader Chase was taken speechless. Drs. Bowdoin and Fletcher were called in, and under their treatment she soon got better.

The Eastern Shore District Conference.

The Eastern Shore District Conference of the M. E. Church, South, composed of nearly one hundred ministers and lay-delegates, representing 55 churches, and nearly 6,000 communicants, will meet in Cambridge, Md., July 17. The annual session will last three days. The occasion is made most interesting by reports on various subjects of church enterprise, and by addresses and sermons by some of the ablest laymen and ministers of the church. The lay-delegates from Accomac and Northampton, are as follows:

W. P. WRIGHT, P. E.

Let the Candidates Speak Out.

MR. EDITOR:—A vast majority of the Democratic people of Accomac being strongly in favor of the free coinage of silver have a right to expect from candidates desiring to represent them in the Legislature a frank and public avowal of their position on that most important and vital question now before the country, an avowal that will not be ambiguous, obscure and uncertain. Accordingly, it is hoped, that candidates will have no hesitation in expressing themselves clearly on this subject. This request is intended to apply not only where Accomac is represented alone, but also in conjunction with Northampton and Elizabeth City. If, however, Major Baker P. Lee shall be a candidate, as it is hoped he will be, it is not necessary for him to define his position in this matter as he has already distinguished himself as an earnest and able champion of the free coinage of silver. Nevertheless, it would be a gratification to hear from him also.

Hymenaeal.

Clifton, the home of Capt. John W. Marsh, wore a gay and festive appearance on the evening of July 2d, 1895, as many friends gathered to witness the marriage of Miss Sophia J. Spence to Fred E. Runge. Promptly at 7 o'clock the bride and groom entered the parlor accompanied by the following bridesmaids and groomsmen: Miss Lena Edwards and Randolph Marsh; Miss Sadie Riley and Charlie R. Marsh; Miss Lilly Carmine and Colie Edwards; Miss Alice Marsh and William Williams. The groom wore the conventional suit of black and the bride was attired in a beautiful dress, a true description of which is beyond the ability of the writer's pen, sufficient to say it was both beautiful and tasty. The ceremony was performed in an impressive though pleasant manner by our genial pastor, Rev. H. S. Dulany. After the ceremony all present adjourned to the spacious dining room where an elaborate collation was spread.

A FRIEND.

Chandler, Northampton; A. M. Nottingham, W. S. Budd, Capt. Burch, W. J. Sturgis, O. L. Hutton, S. J. Turlington, L. F. Baker, Accomac.

Deaths.

Emma Ray, infant child of Mr. Jno. E. Mapp, Jr., died Sunday, July 7th at Wachapreague of congestion of the brain.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Wigton have the sympathy of all in their deep sorrow. Day and night have they watched and waited by their lovely little Mary, whom neither medical skill nor tender nursing could save from death. Why this crushing of their fondest hopes? Our Heavenly Father may explain it later. Many relatives and neighbors attended the funeral conducted by Rev. W. W. Wood in the Baptist Church. How sweet and pure the baby looked in her casket. Mr. Tom Hope sang a beautiful solo. The flowers, lilies and roses, were carried, and the casket borne through the village by six little girls, Misses Mannie Johnson, Flora Miles, Lilly Littleton, Lilly Shreves, Minnie Corvill and Mamie Price, while the younger children gathered wondrously around their little dead companion. She sleeps in our City of the Dead, 'till Jesus comes, where we hope Mary will meet and know her parents again. W. W. W.

Modestown, July 10th. Mrs. Mary Floyd, wife of Dr. G. Fred Floyd, died at her home near Bridgetown, Northampton county, on Tuesday morning, after a short illness, aged 31 years. On Wednesday, the remains were brought to this county and interred in the family burying ground of her husband in the village of Locustville, after funeral services at the home of her father, Mr. E. B. Swanger, conducted by Rev. Mr. Garner, of the M. E. Church, South.

Everyone who knew the deceased will read the above with sorrow and regret. The editor of this paper knew her as an attractive, sweet tempered, amiable child and in later years, as a noble-hearted, conscientious, christian woman. As a child we taught her and loved her, as a woman by her many lofty traits of character, she commanded our affection and esteem. The husband and relatives of the deceased have our sympathy in their great affliction.

BUSINESS NOTICES.
